

QUEEN

Reese Page

Reese Page is the oldest daughter of Derik And Jamie Page, and is so excited to be the Cache County Fair and Rodeo Queen! This summer, she plans to reign with kindness and humility. Having grown up in Cache County, this has always been a dream of hers, and can't wait to serve the community that has helped her grow into the person she is today! Reese recently graduated from Ridgeline High School with honors, where she was an active FFA member on the chapter, area, and state level! On the weekends, you could always catch her at a high school rodeo! She actively shows in Cache County's western horse 4-H program and has had the opportunity to compete in public speaking on the national level through 4-H! Western Heritage and the people of this valley are two of the things she loves most, and she can't wait for them to come together! Let's Rodeo Cache County!!

Hadley Dee Thompson

Hadley Dee Thompson is a 17-year-old Senior at West Field High School, where she maintains a 4.0 GPA. She is actively involved in FCCLA, FFA, National Honor Society, and NHSRA. Hadley has a passion for horses and a love for reining. She enjoys art, traveling, and spending time with her family. She plans to complete a veterinary internship during her senior year and pursue a career as an equine dentist. Hadley is honored to be in the Cache County Rodeo Queen Royalty and represent her community while promoting the western way of life.

1ST ATTENDANT

Breanna Bassett

Breanna is the daughter of Justin and Karli Bassett. Breanna graduated from Mountain Crest High School with a 4.00 this year and is enrolled to study at Utah State University this fall in the Veterinary Science program. She grew up loving horses and the sport of rodeo. She competes in her local horse 4-H program and local open shows, where she recently won the High Point award for the Winter Woolies Horse Show. Breanna grew up showing goats at the Cache County Fair and going to the rodeo every year. She would like to thank everyone that has supported her on this journey. Breanna is so excited and honored to be able to represent the rodeo that made her fall in love with this sport.

Dixie Christensen

Dixie Christensen is from Richmond, Utah with deep roots in Cache Valley. She is the daughter of Timothy and Denise Christensen and is surrounded by two older brothers and two younger brothers. As a 6th generation farm girl she has big shoes to fill in the agriculture community. Her family has ties to College Ward and the Tri-H farms that was her grandpa Hansen's dairy, she also has a family farm in Lewiston, Cove and Richmond. Dixie finished her Freshman year of high school and loved playing Basketball and participating in the FFA along with any school activity she could get to. She loves to tumble and cheer. If you need someone to go on an adventure with Dixie is definitely the life of the party. Dixie loves riding her horse Indy, he is definitely calm to Dixie's wild spirit and personality. She has been able to ride him for the last six years as she started showing horses. She has been able to represent the Cache County Fair and Rodeo as their Jr. Princess, Princess and now as their Jr. Queen. Dixie looks forward to the summer months especially spending time outside watching rodeos. Dixie loves riding horses up in the mountains while checking cows up High Creek Canyon and in Franklin along with the family ranch in McCammon, Idaho. Dixie is showing a steer this year named Onyx, this is her sixth year showing an animal at the Cache County Fair and will be busy celebrating the 147th year with all of her family and friends along with all of you.

See you at the Rodeo and come say Hi!

Marlee Hall

Marlee is the 12-year-old daughter of Kevin and Lyndie Hall. She lives in Lewiston, Utah with her parents and little brother. Her hobbies include skiing, tumbling, basketball and of course... horses! Marlee loves all the girly things like hair, makeup, nails and jewelry, so rodeo queening is right up her alley! Marlee participates in Horse 4-H where she has learned so much and has made many new friends and memories. She has learned how important it is to take care of her horse and how putting in lots of time and work really makes the difference in being a strong team. Being in a royalty last year allowed Marlee to participate in local parades and rodeos where she had some amazing experiences. One of her favorites was riding in her hometown parade on July 4th and seeing so many familiar faces! Marlee is excited to represent Cache County as the Princess, so she can continue to share her love of horses and the sport of rodeo with others!

Indiana Earl

Indiana Earl is so excited to be Cache County Jr. Princess for 2026! This cowgirl lives and breathes ranch life on her family's sheep ranch. She loves all animals and riding her horses. When she's not in boots, you will catch her on the soccer field, showing lambs, and shooting her bow. She loves rodeo, especially bronc riding and hopes to ride broncs someday. Indie is the daughter of Clay and KaeDawn Earl. She just finished up 5th grade and can't wait to represent the Cache County Rodeo this summer!

